

HALL'S ELOPEMENT STOPPED BY MURDER

To-Night's Weather—FAIR; FROST.

To-Morrow's Weather—FAIR.

THE EVENING
WORLD
FINAL EDITION

The Evening
World

FINAL EDITION
THE EVENING
WORLD

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

VOL. LXIII. NO. 22,162—DAILY.

Copyright (New York World) by Press Publishing Company, 1922.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1922.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE THREE CENTS

MAIL HOLD-UP NEAR POLICE HEADQUARTERS

THE SUBLIME PORTE OFFERS TO SUE IN FAVOR OF KEMAL; PEACE TERMS ARE REFUSED

Grand Vizier Says Sultan Has No Desire to Embarrass Angora Party.

WHAT KEMALISTS WANT

Right to Cross Straits and Prevent Reorganization of Greek Forces.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25 (Associated Press).—It is reported that the Grand Vizier has notified the Kemal Government that the Constantinople Government does not desire to embarrass Angora, and that the Ministers are therefore prepared to tender their resignation.

In this case it is expected Mustafa Kemal will send a Governor General to Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 24 (Associated Press).—Hamid Bey, representative of the Angora Government in Constantinople, declared to-day the Allied invitation to the Peace Conference could not be accepted by the Turkish Nationalists on the terms laid down.

"We cannot accept the Allied terms because they propose to demilitarize the Straits of Maritima and Thracian, which would prevent us from bringing our troops from Asia to Europe," said Hamid in a statement to the correspondent.

"Neither can we accept literally the condition that our army shall not advance while the Peace Conference is progressing."

"This would so circumscribe our movements that the enemy would have ample opportunity to prepare forces for a fresh attack and would give the Allies a chance to complete their land and naval reinforcements in the event the conference failed."

"Regarding the Straits, we have already admitted freedom for the passage of all vessels through the Dardanelles," continued Hamid, "but we are not prepared to define in what authority or body the control shall be vested. That question must be settled at a conference between the Turks and the Allies."

"We also insist that all nations having commercial, military or other interests in the Dardanelles, including Russia and Bulgaria, shall participate in the conference."

"We further insist that Great Britain shall suspend all naval and military movements in the Straits during the course of the conference."

KEMAL'S INVASION OF NEUTRAL ZONE WAS A "MISTAKE"

Thought British Troops Had Withdrawn, His Explanation.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The British (Continued on Sixteenth Page.)

$1,500,000 LIQUOR TRANSFER HALTED

Orders for the transfer of nearly $1,500,000 worth of seized liquors from the Army Base Warehouse at Bay Ridge to the Knickerbocker Warehouse in East Second Street, Manhattan, were suddenly countermanded to-day by Ralph A. Day, Federal Prohibition Director, after two truckloads had reached the Knickerbocker.

It is believed a large part of the liquor is being held pending litigation and that the removal has been fought by interests who object to having it moved.

The liquor consists of 15,000 cases of miscellaneous whiskies, wines and other beverages.

SIKI, CONQUEROR OF GEORGES, READY TO FIGHT DEMPSEY

Carpentier, Propped in Bed, Explains Defeat and Asks Another Chance.

PARIS, Sept. 25 (United Press).—Beaten almost beyond recognition, Georges Carpentier, former ring idol of France, tossed all night on his bed and in a delirious frenzy cried for revenge and another chance against Battling Siki, the giant Senegalese heavyweight who knocked him out yesterday in the sixth round of a fight scheduled to go twenty rounds.

Ministrations of his physicians, his heart-broken wife and his faithful manager, Descamps, availed nothing. He wept and pleaded that arrangements be made immediately for another meeting with the black man.

No outsiders were permitted near Carpentier. Dr. Martel, his physician, said both his eyes were completely closed, his lips were swollen immensely, his nose was broken, a long gash was cut in his cheek, his right hand was fractured in two places and his left hand in one place.

The effort to talk was obviously painful but he persisted in punishing himself and refusing to heed advice to remain quiet.

"I made the mistake of trying to stand up in the early rounds," he cried. "He got over a lucky punch and took all my strength away. I hit him with everything I had. He has wonderful powers of recuperation. His race is not made like mine."

Carpentier received 2,000 francs, about $16,000 for his end while Siki was paid 60,000 francs, or $4,700.

After refusing to see even his best friends in the morning, Carpentier late this afternoon agreed to receive a few newspaper men. Propped up in his bed, he said:

"I do not intend to let this defeat end my career in the ring. I am going to retire after this failure, but I will not fight any one before I get another chance at Siki. I sparring him too long while I was trying to solve his style and waiting for the opportunity to get over a right hand punch. His blow to my jaw in the third round hurt me seriously and weakened me."

(Continued on Fifteenth Page.)

WILLS IS ANXIOUS TO FIGHT SIKI

American boxing promoters were busy on the cables to-day seeking services of Battling Siki, six-round conqueror of Georges Carpentier and the present sensation of the ring.

Dave Driscoll, matchmaker of the Elberts-McKee Club in Brooklyn, called the Senegalese an offer of $100,000 to come over and meet Harry Wills on Columbus Day. Driscoll expressed the opinion that Siki ought to be able to keep himself in shape for such a short time.

Tex Rickard also is after Siki for either Wills or Dempsey. He has not exposed his hand. He said to-day he was sending a personal representative to France to make his proposition.

Harry Wills, colored challenger of Jack Dempsey, is anxious to meet Siki.

"Sure, Wills wants to fight him anytime he gets ready. We are not dodging anybody. Maybe they won't call Siki a set-up," Paddy Mullins, Wills's manager, said to-day.

MILLER CLEANS UP SLATE MUDDLE; WILL RUN, HE SAYS

Willing to Accept if Associates Are in Sympathy With His Programme.

WOOD, CLAIMS JUDGE.

Appointment Eliminates Him From Lieut. Governor Race—His Backers Happy.

By Joseph S. Jordan. (Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Sept. 25.—Gov. Miller practically settled the business of the Republican State Convention by announcing at noon to-day, after he had appointed Lieut. Gov. Jeremiah Wood to the position of Judge of the Court of Claims and thus eliminated him from the race for renomination, that he will accept the place at the head of the ticket provided his associates are in sympathy with his administrative programme.

He maintained that he is not an active candidate for renomination, but he could not decline if it is tendered by the State Convention and if the remnants of the ticket is made up of candidates in accord with his programme.

It is generally conceded that the remainder of the ticket will be made of the sort of candidates Gov. Miller demands.

Following is Gov. Miller's statement in full:

"I am not a candidate. I have attempted to institute certain reforms in the State Government and to inaugurate certain policies which I believe, if firmly established, will be of great public benefit. The foundation for them has been laid in the way of legislation. It remains to work them out and thoroughly establish them as a matter of administration. That involves work of other State departments."

"I have long hesitated in reaching a decision even as to whether I would decline a nomination if one were made."

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

FEW PROFITEERS FOUND IN COAL SELLERS SO FAR

Only Violations in Price Fixing by Small, Irresponsible Dealers.

Bona Fide complaints to the State Fuel Commission have been few. William H. Woodin, State Fuel Administrator, disclosed to-day to newspapermen in an interview in which he promised that profiteering by any dealer will result in a discontinuance of his supply. He asked that the public be notified that anonymous complaints will not be honored by the commission.

Woodin declared his belief that reputable coal dealers were doing their best to assist the commission. The only violations in price fixing, he said, were by small irresponsible dealers.

"The commission will not stand for profiteering," said the Administrator, "but the public must largely police the situation itself."

"Persons with complaints should not be afraid to come out boldly, giving us exact details of alleged profiteering, including the time, place and price charged. This year's price should be only slightly in excess of last year's price."

"I understand that many are backward about making complaints because they fear they will be unable to get coal. They need have no apprehension. The commission will see to it that they are supplied."

George J. Kitz, Fuel Administrator for Manhattan, to-day opened an office in room 200, No. 90 West Street.

ALBANY, Sept. 25.—Gov. Miller practically settled the business of the Republican State Convention by announcing at noon to-day, after he had appointed Lieut. Gov. Jeremiah Wood to the position of Judge of the Court of Claims and thus eliminated him from the race for renomination, that he will accept the place at the head of the ticket provided his associates are in sympathy with his administrative programme.

He maintained that he is not an active candidate for renomination, but he could not decline if it is tendered by the State Convention and if the remnants of the ticket is made up of candidates in accord with his programme.

It is generally conceded that the remainder of the ticket will be made of the sort of candidates Gov. Miller demands.

Mrs. Tiernan Hurls Her Handbag At Poulin Testifying in Court; Screams at Him, 'You're a Liar'

Tries to Bombard Witness With Law Books; With Difficulty Restrained.

DEFENDANT HIS ALIBI.

Court Has to Recess Until Defendant's Sister, Who Faints, Is Revived.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 25.—With a scream, Mrs. Augusta Tiernan hurled her handbag at Harry Poulin, as he denied from the witness stand to-day that he was the father of her nine-months-old child. The courtroom was thrown into turmoil.

"You are a liar," shouted Mrs. Tiernan.

"Sit down, you'll hear more than that," answered Poulin.

Court attaches and attorneys dashed for Mrs. Tiernan as she attempted to seize law books from the attorney table and throw them at the witness, Mrs. Mary Donohue, sister of Poulin, collapsed and a recess was taken until she could be revived.

The outburst came just as Poulin finished his direct testimony. Attorneys put a general question to him, asking if he had at any time been intimate with Mrs. Tiernan. He replied in the negative and like a shot Mrs. Tiernan was out of her seat, screaming and reaching for something to throw.

It was with difficulty that the woman was restrained, as Poulin continued his denials of clandestine meetings. Poulin followed on the stand Dr. A. E. Stonedolfer, who corroborated the testimony of Joseph Poulin, brother of the defendant, relative to a fishing trip.

Prof. John T. Tiernan, husband of the woman who accuses Poulin of ruining her life, sat throughout the session with bowed head, except when restraining his wife from interrupting the testimony.

Albert Davis earlier in the morning had testified that he is a communicant at St. Joseph's Church and that he saw Poulin and his wife at the Lenten services of 1921, during which time Mrs. Tiernan had testified to having had clandestine meetings with the defendant. He said his pew was directly behind that of the Poulin family and that he (Davis) had missed the services only by sight at that time, he added.

Davis's testimony was interrupted frequently by Prosecutor Jellison with insinuations that the witness was making misleading statements and "is so nervous now that he can hardly sit in the witness chair."

WOODBINE RESULTS.

CLEAR AND FAST. FIRST RACE—5½ furlongs. Patchwork (Turner), $6.05, $2.30 and $2.70, first.

Macbeth (Burke), $7.50 and $1.70 second. Game Scrapper (Anderson), $7.50, third. Time—1:07 4-5. All started.

AQUEDUCT RESULTS.

FIRST RACE—6 furlongs. Prince of Umbria (Fator), first; Evelyn Sawyer (Parker), second; Lady Rose (Thomas), third. Non-starters: Hughie, Homestretch, Scarecrow, Chlie.

HAVRE DE GRACE RESULTS.

Little Hope (Woodstock), first; Panasain (Johnson), second; No. 33 (Smallwood), third. Non-starters: Felicitous.

THE WORLD TRAVEL BUREAU. Arcade, Pulitzer (World) Building, 55-57 Park Row, N. Y. City. Tel. John 5-3400. Check room for baggage and parcels noon 4-9 and night. Money orders and travelers' checks for sale—Any.

HYLAN WILL LEAD FIGHT FOR HEARST AT CONVENTION

Mayor Announces That He Will Go to Syracuse on Wednesday.

Mayor John F. Hyland announced to-day that he will leave for Syracuse on Wednesday morning and will attend the Democratic State Convention. What he professes to be uncertain whether he will sit in the convention as a delegate, there is no doubt in political circles that his eleventh hour determination to attend means that he will be given a proxy from Brooklyn and will lead the fight for Hearst on the floor, and probably will serve on the Resolutions Committee to try to force through his platform ideas.

"I have definitely made up my mind to go to Syracuse," said the Mayor. "Whether I will be a delegate or not depends entirely on whether there will be a vacancy in the Brooklyn quota. If there is I hope to be selected to fill the vacancy."

If political signs mean anything the change of plans on the part of the Mayor signifies that the Hearst forces found they had nobody strong enough to make a fight for the editor on the floor of the convention and were forced to fall back upon the Mayor. It also signifies that the Hearst managers have come to the conclusion that they will have to bring on all their heavy artillery to combat the attacks of former Gov. Smith.

RAIL INJUNCTION GOES INTO EFFECT

No Modifications Made in Drastic Orders.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The drastic temporary injunction ordered asked by Attorney General Daugherty against the shopcraft strike leaders was put in force to-day by Judge James H. Wilkinson without any of its effectiveness being modified.

Several slight changes in the wording of the order submitted Saturday were made by Judge Wilkinson to clarify its meaning.

Following a short plea by defense attorneys, Judge Wilkinson denied their motion to dismiss, added the phrase, "with intent to further said conspiracy," in several paragraphs and signed the order.

The date of the hearing for the defendants not heard in this action was set for Oct. 5.

The World's Advertising Increasing In Leaps and Bounds

Week ending Sept. 25d as compared with corresponding week of last year:

98,280 More Advertisements. 6,446 More "Help—Male" Ads. 2,942 More "Help—Female" Ads. 1,286 More "To Let" Ads. 332 More "Real Estate" Ads. 103 More "Automobiles"—Misc. 74 More "Business Opportunities"—Misc. 58 More "Boarders Wanted." 52 More "Autumn Resorts." 4 More "Educational" Ads.

42,148 Separate World Ads. Last Week. 15,314 More Than Next Highest Newspaper.

IT IS WELL TO REMEMBER THE SUNDAY WORLD IS READ IN 600,000 HOMES.

BANDITS HOLD UP MAIL TRUCK NEAR ENRIGHT'S OFFICE

Three Thugs Leap From Speeding Taxi, Block From Police Headquarters.

BUT WAGON IS EMPTY.

Armed Yeggs Use Same Tactics as in $2,400,000 Robbery Year Ago.

Three heavily-armed thugs riding in a taxicab staged a daring hold-up of a large mail truck at 145 this morning at Grand and Lafayette Streets, within a short block of Police Headquarters, a few doors from Fire Engine Company No. 29, and in plain sight of a corner where scores were emerging from or entering the subway station and cross-town buses. The thugs made a clean get-away, despite the fact that this corner usually is patrolled by at least one policeman every minute of the day and night.

But the mail truck was empty and the thugs got nothing for their pains. Its driver was returning from the Grand Central Terminal, where he had delivered a large cargo of registered and other mail. It is the belief of police and postal authorities that the thugs got the wrong truck.

The hold-up was fully as bold as that at Leonard Street and Broadway Oct. 24 last, when cash, jewelry and bonds valued at $2,400,000 were stolen from an armed mail truck by a band of automobile thugs. For that robbery three chiefs of the New York Post Office were suspended, two of the robbers were sentenced to twenty-five years each in prison and several other arrests were made.

To-day's hold-up was managed the same as that of Oct. 24. It was testified at the trial of the thugs who took part in that robbery that the hold-up was over in a minute and a half. This morning, it took even less time.

The truck was driven by Robert McCoy, who was unaccompanied. It was said he was accompanied by an armed guard on the uptown trip, but that the guard left him at the station. He was proceeding at a lively pace south on Lafayette Street, when, at a point about two blocks north of Grand Street, a taxicab pulled up alongside of him and kept there until within a few doors of Grand Street, when the chauffeur of the taxicab made a quick movement and pulled in front of the mail truck, causing it to slow down.

Three men, all armed, leaped out of the taxi and covered McCoy and two jumped on the mail truck on either side of McCoy. The leader addressed McCoy in gruff tones:

"Throw up your mitts and throw 'em up quick. Keep 'em up, too, if you expect to see your folks again."

The robber saw at a glance that the mail truck was empty. He signalled to the driver of the taxicab who drove off east in Grand Street.

The three men who had stopped the truck stood on the corner watching him. McCoy told Post Office inspectors who questioned him to-day, until he was out of their sight. He said there were scores of witnesses of the hold-up, but none of them showed any inclination of realizing what was going on or that there was occasion to call for the police.

McCoy was so shaken when he went to the City Hall Station to report this attempted robbery that he could not remember the color of the robbers' faces.

Another mail truck bound from Brooklyn and laden with valuable mail, it was said, was the objective of the robbers. Investigation showed that this truck, going in the opposite direction, saw the truck that had been held up only a few minutes after the assault and finding what had happened were the first to give the alarm to the police.

MRS. MILLS TOLD RELATIVE SHE AND RECTOR PLANNED ELOPEMENT TO JAPAN

Prosecutor Stricker Sees in This Basis for Murder of Choir Singer and the Rev. Mr. Hall—More Citizens Tell of Seeing Pair in Secluded Part of Park.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, Sept. 25.—Definite proof of the intention of the Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, to elope to Japan with Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, wife of the church caretaker and leader of the choir with whom he was found murdered Sept. 16, was sought by Prosecutor Stricker of Middlesex County to-day.

NEGRO FORCES WAY INTO BLIND HOME; KNOCKS DOWN NUN

Luther Gardner Arrested After Attack Which He Had Repeated.

Standing off with their revolvers a score of white and Negro strike-breakers and workmen to prevent a rescue of their prisoner, Detective Sergeants Cusack and O'Connell, of the Jersey City Night Squad, this morning went upon a barge lying off Pier 5 of the Erie Railroad, and arrested Luther Gardner, a Negro, who was later identified as having forced an entry into St. Joseph's Home for the Blind in Pavonia Avenue, and there knocked down one of the sisters. He was arraigned before Judge O'Regan and held without bail to await this sister's return from Philadelphia.

Gardner was found in the yard of the home, which is at Pavonia and Baldwin Avenues, on Saturday morning. As he had no business there the engineer ordered him away. But he came back at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and Sister Sebastian, attending nurse with other sisters, saw him climbing a fire escape of the home.

She ran from the chapel, followed by other sisters, and discovered that the Negro had broken into the home through a window on the third floor. When she and the others reached him he was trying to break down the door to a dormitory in which about a dozen blind girls were sleeping.

Sister Sebastian caught him by the arm and tried to push him away from the door, but he grabbed her wrist and, twisting her arm up her back, threw her to the floor. The other sisters leaped toward him, but he dodged and ran down the stairs and out of the building.

Sister Lazarini recognized the man as one who, with his wife, had worked in the Home about two years ago and word of this and the attack were sent to the Jersey City police.

The information given by the sisters led the police to persons who knew Gardner and he was readily located. When Cusack and O'Connell awoke him in his bunk and put him under arrest he fought them so desperately that it was necessary to knock him down. It was then he called upon his fellow workmen to come to his aid. But the detectives' revolvers put a stop to that.

The records of Dr. Hasbrouck's office showed that Mrs. Mills had been operated on by his associate, Dr. D. C. Hughes, on the morning of Aug. 29. She had a tooth extracted and was treated for gum trouble. No one at the office could remember whether or not she had been accompanied by a man in clerical dress. The fee, $10, was paid after the operation.

There was some connection between either the Hall and the Mills household and the Ku Klux Klan, the prosecutor believes. He has not yet been able to establish to his satisfaction if James Mills or the rector himself was the member or if both were. But he has been told that Mrs. Mills, either from her husband or Mr. Hall, if not of her own membership in the Klan auxiliary knew much of the secret workings of the order. There is no chapter of the Ku Klux Klan in New Brunswick so far as the authorities know, but there is one in Newark, Elizabeth and Trenton.

Mr. Stricker has called before him ten reputable citizens who have seen the Rev. Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills sitting together on the last bench on the northwest corner of Buelough Park, which is almost entirely screened by evergreens. Mr. Stricker has learned that in a tolerant way the men of the congregation referred to the spot as "the place where the rector fixes up the hymn selections." The park adjoins the Phillips farm.

The secluded bench was visited to-day by county detectives with the ob-

A FORD A DAY GIVEN AWAY FREE Special Daily Prize for Four Weeks For "What Did You See To-Day?"—See Page 17